

Samuel H. LiPuma, M.A.
Associate Professor, Philosophy

Samuel H. LiPuma has served as an Associate Professor of Philosophy at Cuyahoga Community College (Tri-C[®]) since 2002, where he teaches at the Western Campus.

LiPuma's interests include ethics, bioethics, philosophy of science, distance learning, and history of philosophy and music. His areas of expertise are Bioethics – Palliative Care and Brain Death, Ethical Theory, Applied Ethics, Philosophy of Science, and Web-based teaching.

LiPuma earned both his master's and bachelor's degrees in philosophy from the University of Dayton.

Speech Topics:

- Bioethics
- Bioethics – Reviving Higher Brain Death: This presentation discusses the definitions of brain death, the on-going debate regarding this definition, and landmark court cases involving brain death and the removal of life-support. Audience participation in this discussion is encouraged.
- Figures in the history of philosophy (Socrates, Descartes, et al.)
- Philosophy of Science