

TONY COSTANZO

DIRECTOR - EXTERNAL AFFAIRS - CLEVELAND/NORTHERN OHIO - AT&T

Tony Costanzo is the Director of External Affairs for AT&T Cleveland/Northern Ohio and works closely with lawmakers, local community and business leaders, customers and employees on AT&T's public policy, philanthropy and community relations initiatives in the region.

A Cleveland native, Tony joined AT&T in 2001 as a Network Technician. He went on to become Manager of Installation/Repair, and later a Project Manager in Engineering/Construction for AT&T Ohio. Prior to joining Engineering/Construction team, Tony project managed the wireline network build for the 2016 Republican National Convention.

In Tony's diverse body of work at AT&T, he's most proud of applying a strong work ethic to take care of all customers, communities, businesses, lawmakers and employees. A Magna Cum Laude graduate of Indiana Wesleyan University, Tony has also coached student and community basketball and football teams for more than 20 years. This rewarding work allows Tony to make an impact in the lives of young athletes, instilling strong work habits, character and values, and helping them on their journey to become successful adults.

Tony and his wife have three sons and live in Brunswick Hills.

AT&T