Christopher E. Kinsella, Sr., M.A.
Assistant Professor, History

Christopher E. Kinsella has served as an Assistant Professor of History at Cuyahoga Community College since 2011, where he teaches at the Eastern Campus.

Kinsella earned his M.A. in Diplomatic History, and his B.A. in Military History. Prior to joining Cuyahoga Community College, Kinsella served as an Adjunct Professor at Moraine Valley Community College in Chicago, Illinois and has taught at the college level for more than 10 years.

Speech Topics:

- Adolph Hitler and the Holocaust
- The Assassination of John F. Kennedy (50th Anniversary in 2013)
  This discussion will cover the activities leading up to the event and some of the more important questions that still leave many Americans suspicious about the events of November 22nd, 1963. The presenter has walked the entire motorcade route in Dallas, visited the floor of the book store depository where Oswald shot from, examined the infamous Lincoln limousine and stood in the space on Air Force One where Jackie Kennedy sat near her husband’s coffin.
- The Manhattan Project
- Nuclear weapons
- The American Presidency
- International Relations
- The Cold War