Tri-C hosts 40th annual Dr. King celebration on January 15

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Cuyahoga Community College will commemorate the 40th annual observance of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday on Sunday, Jan. 15 from 2:30 - 5:00 p.m. at the State Theatre. The free event features musical performances by Pastor Marvin L. Winans and the Cleveland Philharmonic Orchestra.

Tri-C's celebration is the longest-running MLK event in Cleveland. The tradition began in 1977, six years before the federal government designated a day to honor the slain civil rights leader. Reserve your free tickets online, or at 216-987-4805.

Alumni Profile: Dr. Katherine Arenz

Dr. Katherine Arenz's family was torn apart by alcohol and drug addiction when she was very young. By the time she was 14 years old she was living in a shelter. However, with the help of foster families, counselors and Tri-C professors, Katherine was able to fulfill her dream of becoming a physician. Read the rest of her story.

Tri-C Volleyball Conference Honors

Mary Colovas,
OCCAC Coach of the Year

Congratulations to Tri-C Volleyball Coach Mary Colovas on being named 2016 Coach of the Year by the Ohio Community College Athletic Conference after guiding the Challengers to their best season in more than a decade. "We had a great group that meshed really well together," said Coach Colovas, now in her eighth season as coach. "They played with a lot of heart."

We invite all alumni to join us at any of our teams' games! Reconnect and re-engage with Tri-C Athletics.
