TRI-C ALUMNI PROFILE:
Audrey Allen

Alumna credits Tri-C Nursing program for skills needed in emergency medical career.

Alumni Profile: Audrey Allen

Audrey Allen worked in the mortgage business for 16 years before embarking on a second career in nursing. She hoped to eventually attend nursing school, but was waiting until her children were older. After her husband unexpectedly became ill, Allen served as his home care provider when he was discharged from the hospital. It was then she decided to change careers and pursue a degree in nursing. Join us Feb. 18 to cheer on the Challengers!

Tri-C's Men's Basketball and Alumni Relations invite you to join us for Alumni Day on Sat., Feb. 18 at 2 pm. The Challengers are having an amazing season, with their only loss coming in double overtime against the Cincinnati State Surge. They'll try to even the season series against the Surge in the Gym at the Metropolitan Campus, and we need you in the stands. Wear your teal and bring friends, family, and Tri-C pride to cheer on the Challengers and reconnect with other alumni. Please RSVP by Feb. 10 with your name and the number of guests in your group.

Stokes: Honoring the Past, Inspiring the Future of Cleveland

Moderator Dee Perry talks with Cleveland Mayor Frank Jackson at the Stokes initiative launch event

Tri-C's Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Humanities Center is honored to join with more than 60 community partners to present Stokes: Honoring the Past, Inspiring the Future of Cleveland. The 50th anniversary of Carl Stokes' election as mayor of Cleveland will be commemorated throughout 2017 with a yearlong series of events designed to inspire a new generation of community leaders. The initiative will honor Mayor Stokes and his brother, Congressman Louis Stokes, and build on their legacy of leadership, advocacy and action by addressing a wide spectrum of issues through music and theater performances, museum exhibits, an academic conference, an oral history project and more. A full calendar of upcoming events is available here.

Free tax preparation

Tri-C will again offer free personal income tax filing services to qualified taxpayers filing simple returns for 2016. The services will be offered at various times on four locations (Corporate College West and Metropolitan, Eastern and Western campuses) through April 5. Visit the Community Services website for more information.
