TRI-C ALUMNI PROFILE:
Yolanda Ramos

Tri-C was a key ingredient in alumna's culinary success

Alumni Profile: Yolanda Ramos

Yolanda Ramos is a believer and practitioner of healthy eating. The Certified Personal Chef/Professional Culinarian earned an Associate of Applied Business degree in Hospitality Management with a concentration in Culinary Arts from Tri-C in 2015. She had a two-year internship with Whole Foods Market in their prepared foods department as part of her training, where she specialized in healthy eating for healthy living. Ramos credits Chefs Karen Monath, Ky-Wai Wong and Michelle Gaw for guiding her on her path to success. "The professors at Tri-C helped keep me motivated to achieve my degree," she said. Tri-C hosts Veterans Experience Action Center

Veterans and their families can learn how to claim benefits and services during the Veterans Experience Action Center scheduled for Aug. 10-12, 2017 at Tri-C's Western Campus (11000 Pleasant Valley Road, Parma). The Veterans Experience Action Center essentially serves as a claims clinic, providing a one-stop shop for answers and support. The free event will bring together specialists from federal, state and county organizations to assist with filing or expediting benefit claims; health care enrollment and exams; issuing veteran identification cards; and more. The Veterans Experience Action Center will run 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Thursday, Aug. 10; 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 11; and 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday, Aug. 12. Visit www.tri-c.edu/veterans for more information about Tri-C's Veterans Services.

Cleveland Eats will celebrate Tri-C's Hospitality Management program

The region's food culture, chef-driven restaurants and craft beer scene will be celebrated during Cleveland Eats, a new culinary festival organized by Tri-C's Hospitality Management Center of Excellence. We invite you to bring your friends and family to the food and entertainment festival on September 15 - 16 in Downtown Cleveland on Mall B. The event will showcase the hospitality industry's impact on the Northeast Ohio economy while highlighting Tri-C's vital role in training the skilled workers needed to continue the region's restaurant renaissance. The city's top chefs will be hosting culinary demonstrations and preparing delicious small plates, and the family-friendly festival will include craft beer tastings and kiosks; and musicians, dancers, artists and other entertainers. Complete details about the weekend's schedule, participants and pricing can be found here.

FirstEnergy hires all the recent graduates from Tri-C's Power Systems Institute Training Program

FirstEnergy Corp. has hired all 22 graduates from Tri-C's most recent cohort of the award-winning Power Systems Institute program to enhance service reliability for Northeast Ohio customers. The two-year program, which is a partnership between Tri-C and The Illuminating Company, a subsidiary of FirstEnergy, combines hands-on utility skills training at a FirstEnergy facility in Brooklyn with technical coursework taught in Tri-C classrooms. Graduates earn an Associate of Technical Studies degree with a focus on electric power utility technology.

Tri-C alumnus Trevor Schneck (above left) earned a graphic design degree in 2008 and returned to Tri-C to participate in the FirstEnergy Power Systems Institute. He is pictured here with Tri-C Foundation Director, John Skory, president, The Illuminating Company who is also a Tri-C graduate. The next cohort will begin this fall – visit www.firstenergycorp.com/psi for more details.
