TRI-C ALUMNI PROFILE:
Mary Kay Thomas

Alumna healed through art therapy now teaches others.

Alumni Profile: Mary Kay Thomas

When Mary Kay Thomas enrolled at Cuyahoga Community College, a stroke had left her unable to read. She chose to continue her education to regain the skills she lost from the brain trauma, and because she loved helping others through her passion for art. "I love art and it has been a huge part of my life as far back as I can remember," she said. "Art proved to be the best therapy, but I couldn't have done it without Tri-C." Tri-C hosts 41st annual Dr. King celebration on January 14

Cuyahoga Community College will commemorate the 41st annual observance of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday on Sunday, Jan. 14 from 2:30 - 5:00 p.m. at the Connor Palace Theatre. The event will feature musical performances by Grammy-Award winner Donnie McClurkin and the Cleveland Philharmonic Orchestra.

Tri-C's celebration is the longest-running MLK event in Cleveland. Reserve your free tickets now - supplies are limited.

New Tri-C service allows you to Job Shadow from your desk

Tri-C Career Services has added a new job search tool to the services they offer. VirtualJobShadow.com is a highly engaging, fully digital career exploration and workforce development resource. It brings job shadowing directly to your computer, eliminating the costs and challenges frequently associated with traditional job shadowing. Establish a free account today to access hundreds of career profiles and videos, along with education and job-search tools, and more.
