TRI-C ALUMNI PROFILE:
Mireille Wozniak-Michalak

Alumni Profile: Mireille Wozniak-Michalak

After graduating high school, Mireille Wozniak-Michalak wasn't sure which career she wanted to pursue but she knew she had to continue her education. She enrolled at Cuyahoga Community College because it was less expensive than a four-year institution and offered flexible class schedules and convenient locations. Wozniak-Michalak had poor study skills in high school and found the help she needed at Tri-C. "Tri-C eased me into learning how to be a better student," she said. "The classes addressed the issues faced by non-traditional students and the classes seemed less rushed so what you learned stayed with you." Read the rest of her story.
