Lecture Series presents

Sharing Culture and Story Through Art

with Hector Castellanos Lara
Visual artist; art therapy specialist;
artistic director at Dia de Muertos Ohio

In this world, we are exposed to a variety of cultures and values.

Art gives us the ability to express ourselves differently.
We can teach others about our culture while promoting unity and equality.

Join Hector in discussing the importance of sharing culture and story through art.

As a community leader, artist and organizer, Hector works with diverse populations to cross borders – both real and imagined – to create projects that awaken the imagination and help organizations create new community relationships.

Wednesday, March 22 | 7 p.m.

Westshore Campus room 112

31001 Clemens Road, Westlake

Free and open to the public!
No reservations required.
