EXECUTIVE CHEF

Chef Arnaud Berthelier, CMC, Executive Chef of the Union Club of Cleveland boasts a vast background in leading the kitchens of some of the best restaurants and properties across the globe. A native of France, Berthelier started his career working in numerous fine restaurants in his homeland. The highlight of his career thus far includes a two-year stint at the three-star Michelin restaurant Le Louis XV in Monte Carlo, France, where he worked under legendary chef Alain Ducasse.

Other award-winning properties at which Berthelier has worked include Ritz Carlton in Sheikh, Egypt; Sir Elly's in the Peninsula Hotel in Shanghai, China; The Resort at Pelican Hill in Newport Beach, California, and the Everglades Club in Palm Beach, Florida.

Chef Berthelier achieved his Master Chef designation in 2018 which is the highest and most demanding level of certification within the American Culinary Foundation (ACF). Throughout testing, chefs are challenged with theory and practical applications of cooking, as well as business application.

The Union Club is a 5-Star Platinum Club of America award winner, ranking the club among the nation's top city clubs and most highly regarded private clubs. The club is also a winner of BoardRoom magazine's Distinguished Emerald Club Award. The history of the Union Club spans nearly 150 years and is studded with names of national and international importance: leaders of business, industry, philanthropy, and government, including five U.S. Presidents. The Union Club's distinguished history, superb facilities, compelling programs, impeccable service, and actively engaged membership add up to a Platinum Experience.
