

NEW COURSE OFFERING! Spring SEMESTER 2010

Introduction to Peace and Conflict Studies

Western Campus: POL 1040—CRN 16134, MW 1:30-3:05

Eastern Campus: Fall 2010! See Web site for details

This three credit course helps meet your Social and Behavioral Sciences degree requirement needed for any degree!

Course Description:

This course is an introduction to the field of conflict analysis and resolution. Students will examine definitions and theories of conflict, diverse views of conflict resolution, and will explore contemporary studies of individual behavior and social life as they relate to conflict and its role in violent and peaceful social change.

Questions? For More Info, Contact:

Jennifer Batton
Global Issues Resource Center
216-987-2231
Jennifer.Batton@tri-c.edu

West Campus
Dr. Susan Lohwater
216-987-5044
Susan.Lohwater@tri-c.edu

Applicable to Many Majors and Valued by Employers:

Healthcare	Business
Education	Politics
Administrative	Law Enforcement
Social and Human Services

REGISTER TODAY!

Call 216-987-3075

And reference the CRN Number: 16134

Possible Certificate in Conflict Management and Peace Studies coming Fall 2010!

