Cuyahoga
Community
College

About Us

For more than 40 years, Cuyahoga Community College (Tri-C®) has been a premier provider of education to individuals 55 and older. Based on the concept of providing adult education within an academic environment, Encore holds to an educational standard that recognizes the intellectual interests of 55+ students. To enhance learning opportunities and community engagement, Tri-C offers both on- and off-campus experiences. The learning possibilities are endless through Encore Campus Fridays and the Neighborhood Scholars programs.

Two Opportunities to Learn With Us:

- Encore Campus Fridays: Encore Campus Fridays is a leading adult education program for individuals 55 and older in Greater Cleveland. Students choose from a vast and diverse set of both old and new courses each session (Summer, Fall, Winter and Spring). Outstanding instructors include Tri-C staff, retired educators and professionals from education, the arts, business, and health and wellness. Encore Campus Fridays allows students to take 1-6 sessions for seven weeks in Fall, Winter and Spring and 1-3 sessions for four weeks in Summer for one low registration fee.
- Neighborhood Scholars: Encore 55+ Adult Education’s Neighborhood Scholars program, made possible in cooperation with community partners, is held at Corporate College® East in Warrensville Heights, Corporate College® West in Westlake, Brunswick University Center and other locations across Greater Cleveland.

Encore Campus Fridays Course Descriptions

This class involves physical activity. Registrants may be asked to sign an informed consent/release of liability form prior to participation.

For computer-based classes, participants will need to know their Student ID number (S#) and password to log in to the Tri-C network.

Please see the instructions on page 14 of this brochure or on our website at www.tri-c.edu/encore for how to obtain your S# for computer access. You may also visit a campus Technology Learning Center for assistance.

Amazing Theories in Science and Spirituality

Theodore Smith

Western Campus | 10-10:50 a.m. | CRN 40168

Is the entire universe a hologram? Is God's explicit name written into human DNA? Is it possible to inject one's consciousness into a machine? These are just a few of the cutting-edge ideas that scientists are proposing with a straight face. Explore these theories and others for their societal and spiritual implications.

Anahat Ageless Yoga

Jody Schrock

Eastern Campus | 10-10:50 a.m. | CRN 40118

Anahat yoga is designed for people with limited mobility — due to age, illness or disabilities — who cannot get down on the floor. Class consists of warm-ups, working the major muscle groups and stress reduction through breathing and meditation.

NEW

The American New Wave: Notable Films of the 1970s

Katy Major

Western Campus | 9-9:50 a.m. | CRN 40217

The cinema of the 1970s stands out for its innovation, as geniuses of the medium like Robert Altman, Stanley Kubrick and Roman Polanski graduated from film schools and hit the scene with experimental and artistic films, the likes of which had never before been seen. In this course, we will read about characteristics of the American New Wave (the period of dense, artistic films that followed the introduction of these great minds, spawning films like Bonnie and Clyde, Easy Rider and Chinatown) and then identify them in select films. Together, we will gain knowledge of what characterizes this period and its lasting impact to this day.

NEW

Ancient Greece and the Origins of Democracy

Charles Wood

Eastern Campus | 9-9:50 a.m. | CRN 40141

Western Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40140

Fifth-century Athens saw the emergence of the world's first political democracy. Examine how this form of government, originally established as a way to ease tensions between the rich and the poor, grew to unprecedented power and influence throughout the world.

NEW

Asset Protection and Elder Care Planning With Trusts

Dan A. Baron

Eastern Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40153

Western Campus | 9-9:50 a.m. | CRN 40152

How do you protect the assets you've spent a lifetime building for you and your family? The answer may be as simple as the creation of a family living trust. Learn how to protect your legacy for your family and explore how trusts prevent nursing homes from seizing your assets in a Medicaid spend down.

NEW

Amusement Parks of Yesteryear

Gerry Nemeth

Eastern Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40151

Western Campus | 9-9:50 a.m. | CRN 40150

Revisit some of Northeast Ohio's defunct amusement parks: Euclid Beach, Chippewa Lake, Geauga Lake, Wildwood Lake, Dover Lake and Holiday Sands. View rare video footage and photos, share stories and win prizes.

Avoid the Pitfalls and Traps of Estate Planning

Erin Eurenus

Western Campus | 9-9:50 a.m. | CRN 40172

This course covers what can go wrong in an estate plan, with topics including beneficiary designations, executor duties and will contests. Learn about the most common errors made by drafters and fiduciaries to avoid them in your own plan and make life easier for your loved ones.

Basic Hatha Yoga

Jody Schrock

Eastern Campus | 9-9:50 a.m. | CRN 40167

Classic hatha yoga integrates body, mind and breath. Yoga can strengthen posture and core muscles, improve flexibility, stretch major muscle groups and aid balance. Classes consist of warm-ups, asanas, breathing and meditation.

Basics of Elder Law

Samuel Butcher

Western Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40225

This course covers a variety of issues common to elder law, such as legal matters and strategies for protecting your assets, including your home and other investments. Topics include Medicaid, Medicare, Social Security, wills, trusts and power of attorney documents. Learn how to remain as independent as possible and retain control throughout the aging process.

Beginning Piano

Patricia A. Miles Ashford

Western Campus | 10-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40221

Dust the cobwebs off your mind and learn to play the piano! Students learn how to read music and play easy piano pieces.

NEW

Book Self-Publishing

Carolyn Fuentes

Eastern Campus | 9-9:50 a.m. | CRN 40142

Western Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40143

Learn how to easily draft and finalize documents (e.g., short stories, poetry, research) online. Examine classifications, such as fiction and nonfiction, and explore proper grammar and related tools available to writers. Discover the concept of rivalry (how to influence your book to emerge) and learn how to target specific audiences. Research options for online self-publishing and/or unique publishers. Learn how to create an advertising group (illustrations, cover, editing, proofreaders, editors, distribution, etc.) and search and learn about book reviews.

NEW

Brief Introduction to Genealogy

Amanda Epperson

Western Campus | 10-10:50 a.m. | CRN 40271

Learn the basics of genealogical research: what information to collect, where to find it and how to use it.

Chalk Pastel Drawing

Adrienne Younger

Eastern Campus | 10-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40174

This course is for those who would like to learn about chalk pastels as well as those who just need a refresher. Students will create a representational pastel drawing of a subject, photograph and/or still life. This course is devoted to the medium of chalk pastels — the exploration of drawing and blending and the shaping of forms in color.

NEW

Cleveland Baseball History

Scott Longert

Eastern Campus | 9-9:50 a.m. | CRN 40145

Western Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40144

From its beginning in the late 1860s to the present day, Cleveland's professional baseball history is filled with great players, managers and events that illustrate one of the best franchises in the game. Take a detailed look at the Cleveland ball club, starting with the Forest Citys in the 1870s and continuing through the 20th century. Players including Cy Young, Napoleon Lajoie, Joe Jackson, Tris Speaker and Bob Feller will be highlighted.

Cleveland Mass Transit (1880-2050)

Michael Goldstein

Eastern Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40216

Examine the past and future of mass transit in Cleveland.

Current Financial Topics and Events

Kay AuWerter

Eastern Campus | 10-10:50 a.m. | CRN 40163

Within the swiftly changing world of finance, it is hard to keep up with all the new ideas and strategies. We will talk about the past week's events and the most relevant financial and investment issues of the day.

Discovering Apps for Apple iPhone, iPod and iPad

Jeanne Goldberg

Western Campus | 9-9:50 a.m. | CRN 40169

The Apple App Store only lists the most popular apps — not necessarily the best. Learn how to find the perfect apps to meet your needs and fit your lifestyle.

NEW

The Early Days of Prime-Time Television

Joy Decker Borland

Eastern Campus | 10-10:50 a.m. | CRN 40157

The invention of television involved the work of many visionaries and inventors throughout the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Individuals and corporations competed to make use of this new device in financially and artistically beneficial ways. In the meantime, actors, comedians, musicians, directors and producers were excited about the possibilities offered by what was originally referred to as the "instantaneous transmission of images." By the 1940s, television sets began to replace the radio as the main source of home entertainment. In this course, we will discuss and observe the legends of television from the '40s, '50s and '60s, including Jack Parr, Johnny Carson, Sid Caesar, Lucille Ball, Jackie Gleason, Mary Tyler Moore and George Burns. See these artists and many others on the screen as we explore the early days of "prime time."

NEW

Earrings Made Easy

Evelyn Finley

Eastern Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40148

Western Campus | 9-9:50 a.m. | CRN 40147

Make a different style of pierced dangling earrings each session. Learn how to incorporate crystals, pearls and glass beads of various sizes and shapes, as well as earring wire, chain and earring pins, into your designs.

Everything Google

Jeanne Goldberg

Western Campus | 10-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40222

There is more to Google than just searching the internet. Discover Gmail, Blogger, YouTube, Sites, Orkut, Talk and Notebook.

NEW

Exploring and Watching the Best of the Tony Awards

Joy Decker Borland

Eastern Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40161

Discuss the artists and music that have achieved Broadway's highest honor: the Tony Award. Explore the lives and work of many artists — including Gwen Verdon, Angela Lansbury, Ethel Merman, Robert Preston and Joel Grey — and view their one-of-a-kind performances. If you enjoy revisiting great moments in American Musical Theater and singing the songs that made those moments part of Broadway history, you will surely enjoy this course!

NEW

Favorite Alfred Hitchcock Films

Hugh Weinberg

Eastern Campus | 10-10:50 a.m. | CRN 40159

One of the all-time great masters of cinema, Alfred Hitchcock's legacy lives on through many great films. This course will examine Hitchcock's themes, style and more through a representative sample of his work.

Fun With Fitness

Beth Parnin

Eastern Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40162

Maintain wellness and develop strength and fitness through this light, easy aerobics class. Fitness levels may be enhanced by the use of resistance work, chair work and stretching exercises.

NEW

Graceful Aging

Theodore Smith

Western Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40227

Explore some of the challenges of (and solutions to) aging. What is the brain's relationship to the body (physically, emotionally and psychologically), and how does this affect aging? What can we do about balance and posture as we age? How do we keep our immune and lymphatic systems responsive as we get older?

History of the FBI and J. Edgar Hoover

Douglas Imhoff

Western Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40173

Discuss the history of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, especially the history of its most notable director. This course will cover current and former FBI crime-fighting techniques, the image of FBI agents, some FBI controversies and the professional and personal life of J. Edgar Hoover.

Is Russia's Tsarist Past its Future?

Betty Zak

Western Campus | 10-10:50 a.m. | CRN 40171

Trace the exciting history of the tsars and tsarinas of Russia. Discuss the present situation and speculate a possible return to the glorious peak of the Russian Empire, the time of Peter, Catherine or even Nicholas. What do you see in the future?

NEW

Learn How to Use Social Media: Twitter 101

Laiteisha Dobbins

Eastern Campus | 9-9:50 a.m. | CRN 40149

Students will learn how to complete a user profile and change Twitter background and cover photo; use Twitter reply, retweet, favorites, and direct messages; use the Twitter hashtag function to be part of a conversation; use Twitter search to search tweets and conversations; upload photos and post YouTube videos to Twitter; shorten links for Twitter, using custom url shorteners like Bitly and Google; get more Twitter followers by listing yourself in a Twitter directory; and how to protect tweets and make them private.

Life and Times of Louis Armstrong

Jerry Jelinek

Eastern Campus | 9-9:50 a.m. | CRN 40165

Learn about the life of one of the musical world's true icons. We'll explore the life and music of Louis Armstrong through images, sounds and video clips.

NEW

Microsoft Office Boot Camp

Laiteisha Dobbins

Eastern Campus | 10-10:50 a.m. | CRN 40158

Microsoft Office products improve work efficiency with user-friendly features that enable easy and secure information-sharing as well as professional data presentation. Whether you are looking to expand your Microsoft Office skills for personal use, embarking on a new career or seeking career advancement, this course will provide the training you need. Engage in real-life scenarios and learn to effectively utilize Microsoft Word, Excel, Publisher and PowerPoint to complete everyday tasks.

Negotiating With God

Theodore Smith

Western Campus | 9-9:50 a.m. | CRN 40218

Adam and Eve, Noah, Abraham and Moses each had a unique relationship with their Creator. In turn, we see the "exacerbated parent" reacting to the unexpected behaviors of God's creation. How do these interactions inform our own dealings with God, and what can we learn from them? The text shows us an omniscient God with regrets, an all-powerful God who seems willing to engage in some give-and-take. What examples do teachers like Jesus show us about conversing with, negotiating with and deepening our relationship with God?

Ohio's Own Story

Betty Lou Higgins

Western Campus | 10-10:50 a.m. | CRN 40220

Enjoy an entertaining and dramatic look at Ohio's history through the stories of its people, inventions, places and music.

Old TV Shows: Cowboy Stories

Jay Berkowitz

Eastern Campus | 10-10:50 a.m. | CRN 40156

When most people think of cowboy stories, they think of all the Westerns that they've seen on TV. But did you know that shows like The Twilight Zone and Lost in Space also did cowboy stories? In this four-week course, we'll see how different shows approached cowboy stories — starting with The Twilight Zone and finishing with Star Trek and The Time Tunnel.

Pilates Barre

Ann Vajner

Eastern Campus | 10-10:50 a.m. | CRN 40170

This barre course is a combination of ballet techniques, Pilates and yoga. The moves will challenge your core, stability and balance. No prior dance experience (or tutus!) required. Please bring a mat for floor work.

Police Stories

Tom Kocurko

Eastern Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40155

Hear current and retired local law enforcement officers and private investigators discuss interesting criminal investigations in which they have participated, including some infamous solved and unsolved homicides.

Portrait Drawing

Alice N. Seifullah

Western Campus | 9-10:50 a.m. | CRN 40242

Learn the techniques used in drawing a portrait, including the use of simple forms — such as circles, triangles and squares — in various combinations and variations. Emphasis is placed upon proper feature placement, composition and intensity. Techniques are demonstrated weekly, and students receive coaching from the instructor as needed.

Potpourri: Animals

Michael Laurenty

Western Campus | 10-10:50 a.m. | CRN 40219

Potpourri courses address one topic per week based on a central theme. The “Animals” sequence addresses an array of subjects including invertebrates, mammals, birds, reptiles, amphibians and fish, as well as animal extinction.

NEW

Pre-1950s Horror Cinema

Kay Major

Western Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40226

This course covers horror cinema from the silent films of the 1910s and '20s (and the genre's first “scream queens”) to the gruesome “golden age” of horror in the '30s to the understated but chilling ghost stories of the '40s. Watch films in class, complete take-home readings and participate in discussions. Learn to write critically about film, assessing a film of your choice based on its historic elements.

The Roosevelts (Franklin and Eleanor)

Douglas Imhoff

Western Campus | 9-9:50 a.m. | CRN 40244

Discussion of two prominent and important figures in American history who happened to be married to each other — President Franklin Roosevelt and First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt. This course covers their early childhoods, education and personal lives as well as their marriage, the pre-presidential political period, the presidency (1933-1945) and Eleanor's life after Franklin's death.

NEW

Sci-Fi Cinema of the Atomic Age

Katy Major

Western Campus | 10-10:50 a.m. | CRN 40248

Watch famously campy sci-fi cinema of the 1950s and investigate its larger meaning in a historical context. Read about and discuss the politics and cultural paranoia of the atomic age in America and how each is reflected in the science fiction of the period. Learn about the role of science fiction in pop culture — how the genre specifically animates a culture's fears and desires and what that looked like in mid-century America.

Sign Language is Fun

Valerie Williams

Eastern Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40166

Learn fun ways to practice and express sign language.

NEW

Simply Beads

Roberta Meeks

Eastern Campus | 9-9:50 a.m. | CRN 40154

Western Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40224

Learn how to create beaded bracelets and necklaces with stretch cord. Dexterity-friendly, with therapeutic benefits. Make for yourself or as gifts. All skill levels welcome; men are encouraged to attend.

Smartphone Photography With Lightroom

Georgio Sabino III

Eastern Campus | 10-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40146

Discover how to create great photos on your smartphone using Adobe Lightroom.

NEW

Step-by-Step Guide to Self-Publishing

LeAnne Miller

Western Campus | 10-10:50 a.m. | CRN 40272

Motivation and guidelines for writing, self-publishing and marketing. Learn how to get your book on Amazon, get good reviews and sell books. We'll also discuss choosing a topic and ways to polish an existing piece. Each class opens with a five-minute automatic-writing icebreaker.

The Story in My Head

Michael Laurenty

Western Campus | 9-9:50 a.m. | CRN 40241

Wouldn't it be great to write your memoirs or autobiography for family and friends as part of your legacy? This course will get you started on writing your story — the one in your head, from your point of view — the only way it should be told!

NEW

The Whats and Whys of a Financial Plan

Janice Cackowski

Eastern Campus | 10-10:50 a.m. | CRN 40160

Ever heard your friends or colleagues talk about financial planning and wondered what a financial plan could do for you? This course will walk you through a sample financial plan, describing the planning process in detail and showing how a financial plan can benefit you today and help your beneficiaries in the future.

Water Fitness for Seniors

Ann Vajner

Eastern Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40164

Water fitness is for swimmers and non-swimmers. Learn water walking and aqua jogging, plus shallow and deep-water exercises geared toward the older adult. This class provides cardiovascular exercises and muscle toning and strengthening techniques.

NEW

Where in the World Is Transnistria?

Michael Laurenty

Western Campus | 11-11:50 a.m. | CRN 40223

Get a general understanding of where things are in the world — from Humptulips, Washington to the island group of Micronesia; from hemispheres to hamlets and isolated dwellings. A new subject is covered each week.

What is my Tri-C space?

My Tri-C space is the College's information management program. Through my Tri-C space, you can verify your course schedule, reserve library books and find out about Tri-C activities and events. All changes to your personal information are made through my Tri-C space. You can log on to my Tri-C space from any computer with internet access. Visit my.tri-c.edu.

Parking Information

Parking is included in your non-credit course registration fee through the College's Campus Security and Maintenance Fee. This fee is designed to provide students with unlimited access to all campuses, recreation facilities, technology learning centers, libraries and campus special events without having to purchase hangtags. Protected, lighted parking is provided at all campuses. You may park in any unrestricted parking lot; parking is prohibited in spaces designated for faculty and staff. Parking information may be found online at www.tri-c.edu/parking/.

Campus maps and directions can be found at: www.tri-c.edu/campuses-and-locations/.

Emergency Notifications, Including Campus Closures

To have emergency alerts sent directly to your home or cell phone, please sign up for Tri-C Alerts on the "My Info" tab in my Tri-C space, under Updating Your Personal Information/Addresses & Phones.

Course Cancellations

Courses may be canceled for a variety of reasons. Each course has a cancellation determination date. This is the date the class will be canceled if there is not a minimum enrollment. For Encore Campus Fridays, the date is two weeks prior to the session start date. Every effort is made to notify students when a cancellation occurs. When registering, please be certain Tri-C has all your current contact information. If you are registered in a class that is canceled, you will be notified by email.

Course Schedules:

Encore Campus Fridays schedules will be available on the first day of Encore at the Site Facilitator desk. Other important updates will be posted to the communication board throughout the four-week session. Please see page 14 for Site Facilitator locations.

Cancellations:

Students will be informed of any summer session cancellations by Friday, July 6. Please register by this date to ensure availability.

Advisory Team

Part of what makes our program so wonderful are participants like you who want to make a difference in the Encore program. The advisory team, listed below, are participants who volunteer their time to attend and research events throughout the area to promote the Encore program, help in the office with administrative tasks, update the website with participant information, post on social media and stay in touch with Encore administration. We meet two or three times a year to discuss what can be done to improve the Encore program. If you are interested in being part of the advisory team, please call 216-987-2274 or email us at encore@tri-c.edu.
