

PROGRAM OUTCOMES

APPLIED INDUSTRIAL TECHNOLOGY (BRICKLAYING)

1. Communication. Listen, ask questions, and follow directions as a member of the crew in order to meet the task at hand.
2. Professionalism. Exhibit pride of craftsmanship, plan/manage personal and professional life, and take opportunities to upgrade skills.
3. Safety. Use appropriate personal protective equipment and fall protection to ensure a safe work environment in accordance with the OSHA standards.
4. Technical. Apply knowledge of measurements, blueprint reading, materials, techniques, and tools to construct a structure in accordance with the architect and engineer's specifications and design.