

Document Sharing Policies

Recognition and Release

Universities, Libraries, K-12 Schools, and others frequently request to use Ideation Station documents, ranging from tutorials and study guides to policy manuals, as the basis for their own documents.

This activity is encouraged, with the following criteria:

1. Organizations are permitted to use these documents in whole or in part, or the documents may be modified or incorporated into other documents.
2. For our records, an email must be sent to ideationstation@tri-c.edu describing the use of the documents.
3. Please attribute Ideation Station and/or Think[Box] if you use, adapt, or modify any portion of the documents.
