WILLIAM D. FORD FEDERAL DIRECT LOAN APPLICATION

THE FOLLOWING MUST BE UNDERSTOOD BY ALL DIRECT STUDENT LOAN RECIPIENTS:

1. The Direct Loan is a loan and must be repaid.
2. You must be registered for classes for your loan to be processed, and be enrolled for at least six (6) credits per semester throughout the entire loan period. Your loan funds will disburse in each semester only after you have begun attendance in at least six credits.
3. You must comply with the Tri-C Standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress.
4. First-time borrowers at Tri-C must complete an on-line Stafford Loan Entrance Counseling Quiz at https://www.dl.ed.gov/borrower/EntrCounselingStart.do and submit a printout of the Borrower's Rights and Responsibilities page to the Student Financial Assistance Office at Tri-C.
5. First-time borrowers at Tri-C are required to electronically sign your Master Promissory Note at https://dlenote.ed.gov using your PIN from the U.S. Department of Education. You will be required to provide two references, complete with a name, address, telephone number, and relationship. The MPN process does not produce any forms for you to submit to Tri-C.
6. Tri-C may decrease or terminate loan eligibility due to excessive borrowing at Tri-C or any other institution.
7. You may not be in default or overpayment of any federal grant/loan programs or subject to a judgment lien.
8. First-time borrowers at Tri-C are required to participate in a 30-day delay certification. Therefore, loan funds will not disburse until at least 30 days after the start of the session.
9. If you graduate or cease to maintain at least six (6) credits per semester you must complete an Exit Interview with the Tri-C Student Financial Assistance Office.
10. Interest rates will not exceed 8.25 percent.
