

EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

The CCC Black American Council (formerly, Black Caucus) provides ongoing cultural and educational opportunities for African American students. The Council has sponsored several trips including visits to the Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History in Detroit, Michigan; the National African American Museum in Wilberforce, Ohio; the Paul Lawrence Dunbar House in Dayton, Ohio; the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center in Cincinnati, Ohio; the Underground Railroad Trail in Dresden, Ontario, Canada; the African American Civil War Memorial in Washington, DC; and historical Ripley, Ohio.

Students have also had the opportunity to attend the annual Tri-C Presidential Luncheon and to visit Central State and Wilberforce Universities in Ohio. The Council has provided opportunities for students to meet dynamic personalities such as Cheryl Brown-Henderson of Brown vs. Board of Education; Dr. Bernice Johnson Reagon, singer, composer, scholar and social activist; and Donna Brazile, first African American to lead a major political campaign.

