Transfer Credit Appeal Process

Cuyahoga Community College has a multi-level appeal process to address a student’s concerns when a student disagrees with the applicability of transfer credit by Cuyahoga Community College. As detailed in this document, Cuyahoga Community College hereby notifies students of the availability of an appeals process and the procedures involved.

The acceptance of credit is carefully delineated in the Ohio Articulation and Transfer Policy (policy) and should be uniformly practiced by all institutions. The acceptance of credit is specified in the policy as subject to appeal to the campus level. Students have 60 business days* to file an appeal on an institution’s decision on course applicability at the campus level. The 60 business day period begins on the date the Transfer Credit Evaluation is e-mailed to the student’s official Tri-C e-mail address.

1. Student applies for admission.
2. Tri-C evaluates transcript of accepted students.
3. Tri-C decides on applicability of credit and sends dated statement of transfer credit applicability to student along with notification of the 60 day period for filing an appeal.

4. If the student accepts the judgment, the process ends.
