

UPWARD BOUND PROGRAM

What is Upward Bound?

Upward Bound is a year-round TRiO program designed to prepare high-school students for college.

Who can Apply?

Cleveland Metropolitan School District students in 9th or 10th grade at Glenville, East Technical High School and John Marshall.

Program Enrollment

During the recruitment and enrollment process, students must provide the Upward Bound Program with documentation which will prove their eligibility for the program: a copy of their Social Security card, a copy of their birth certificate, and a Family Income Statement.

What Services Does Upward Bound Provide?

Academic-Enrichment Services

- After-school assistance in English, math and science
- College and Career Prep class
- Preparation for the OGT and the ACT

College Visits

- To public and private colleges and universities including Mount Union, University of Cincinnati, Miami University, Penn State, Temple University, Ohio University and many more.

Special Programming

- Special programming in partnership with colleges, e.g., the Bridges to Higher Education in partnership with CASE and the Saturday Family Academy in partnership with the Winning In America Program .

Saturday Seminars

- Monthly programs on special topics such as the college experience, internships, public speaking, the financial-aid process and goal setting.

Six-Week Summer Enrichment Institute

- Classes in English, math, science and French or Spanish
- Career-Exploration Activities
- Work Study Program
- Out-of-State Field Trip

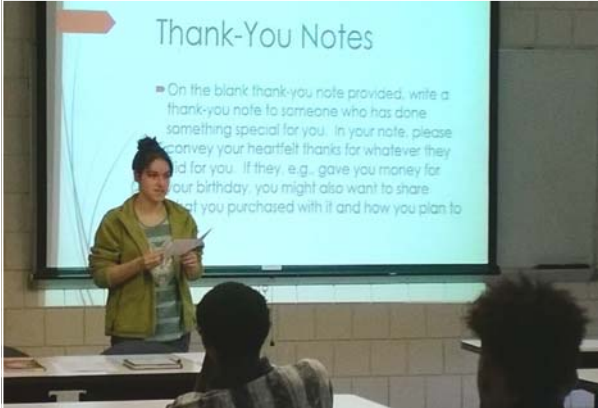

Eight-Week Summer Bridge Program for Graduating Seniors: Up to Two Tri-C Classes for Free; Transferable College Credits; Weekly Advising

The Upward Bound Program is supported by a grant from the United States Department of Education in the amount of $391,500.00.

Educational and Engaging Activities

Alumni Panel: Upward Bound collaborated with Upward Bound Math & Science for a Q&A with alumni from both programs.

Saturday Seminar: Katlin Tennant speaks at a Saturday workshop about Professional Business Communication.

Winter Retreat: Upward Bound students shared their insights into the book "Twelve Steps to a Political Revelation."

Ethnic Foods Tour: My'Chaelah Pond selects some food from the on display at one of the ethnic food markets visited on tour.

Lending a Hand: Karen Kern assists to remove invasive plant species on trails at Cuyahoga Valley National Park.

Miami University Visit: Upward Bound students listen to the tour guide list highlights of the campus on their visit to Miami University.