This section will allow you to better understand VONAPP forms to properly submit them in VONAPP database and to utilize benefits that you have received.

About VA Form 21-526: is an application for VA Veterans Pension, pension is a needs-based benefit paid to wartime Veterans, who meet certain age or non-service connected disability requirements.

About VA Form 21-530: VA Form 21-530 is the application for Burial Benefits. Use this form to submit an application for a one-time monetary benefit for burial, plot, and/or travel allowances after the passing of a veteran.

About VA Form 21-686c: VA Form 21-686c is the application for Declaration of Status of Dependents. Use this form to give VA information about any changes concerning marital status or status of dependent child (ren).

About VA Form 21-4138: VA Form 21-4138 can be used for the following purposes: providing information to the VA in support of a claim; submitting a claim for increased benefits, a new claim for benefits, or a reopened claim for benefits; submitting a notice of disagreement based a decision VA has made; and submitting other claims for benefits with the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Use VA Form 22-1990: form to apply for educational assistance under the following benefit programs:

- Chapter 33, Post-9/11 GI Bill or
- Chapter 30, Montgomery GI Bill (MGIB) or
- Chapter 1606, Montgomery GI Bill - Selected Reserve (MGIB-SR) or
- Chapter 1607, Reserve Educational Assistance Program (REAP) or
- Chapter 32, Post-Vietnam Era Veterans’ Educational Assistance Program (VEAP)

Do not use this form to apply for Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment benefits (chapter 31 of title 38, U.S. Code), Dependents Educational Assistance benefits (chapter 35 of title 38, U.S. Code), Transfer of Entitlement or National Call to Service (section 510 of title 10, U.S. Code). These benefits require different application forms that can be completed on-line and printed at www.va.gov/vaforms or can be obtained from the nearest VA regional office. They may also be available where you received this application.
VA Vocational and Educational Counseling Help Available: If you need help planning your individual educational and career goals, VA offers a wide range of counseling services to help you make these decisions. Services include educational and vocational guidance and such testing as necessary for you to develop a greater understanding of your skills, talents, and interests. For further information on VA counseling, call VA toll-free at 1-888-GI-BILL-1 (1-888-442-4551) or TDD at (800) 829-4833.

Use VA Form 22-1990E: to apply for educational assistance under the Transfer of Entitlement (TOE) program.

Use this form only if you are a family member of an individual eligible to transfer benefits to his or her family member. The service member's military branch must have approved the request to transfer benefits. The eligible service member must have designated you by name, the number of months transferred, and the period for which the transfer is effective.

Do not use this form to apply for benefits based upon your own military service. To apply for benefits based on your own service, use VA Form 22-1990.

VA Vocational and Educational Counseling Help Available
If you need help planning your individual educational and career goals, VA offers a wide range of counseling services to help you make these decisions. Services include educational and vocational guidance and such testing as necessary for you to develop a greater understanding of your skills, talents, and interests. For further information on VA counseling, call VA toll-free at 1-888-GI-BILL-1 (1-888-442-4551) or TDD at (800) 829-4833.

Use VA Form 22-1990N: form to apply for educational assistance under the National Call to Service (NCS) program.

Use this form to apply for education benefits under the National Call to Service (NCS) program (section 510 of title 10, U.S. Code). You should apply for this benefit if you first entered the military on or after October 1, 2003, signed an enlistment contract with DoD (Department of Defense) under the NCS program, and you elected one of the two education incentives provided by that program.

VA Vocational and Educational Counseling Help Available
If you need help planning your individual educational and career goals, VA offers a wide range of counseling services to help you make these decisions. Services include educational and vocational guidance and such testing as necessary for you to develop a greater understanding of your skills, talents, and interests. For further information on VA counseling, call VA toll-free at 1-888-GI-BILL-1 (1-888-442-4551) or TDD at (800) 829-4833.

Use VA Form 22-1990R: form to apply for educational assistance under the Veterans Retraining Assistance Program (VRAP).

By law, applications for the Veteran Retraining Assistance Program (VRAP) must be submitted by October 1, 2013. The application for VRAP (VA Form 22-1990R) will not be available for submission after that date. This law also applies to any application in an incomplete status. If the incomplete application is not submitted in VONAPP by October 1, 2013, the VA will not receive it.

VA Form 28-1900: is the Disabled Veterans Application for Vocational Rehabilitation. Use this form to apply for vocational rehabilitation benefits.

The VA Form 10-10EZ: is the form used to apply for health benefits at VA medical facilities. Submission of this application will provide us with the information we need to begin the enrollment process for you. When needed, a veteran's benefits counselor will follow up to assist you in completing the enrollment process.

Are you on active duty?: If you now are on active duty, check to see if your installation has a VA Military Services Coordinator who can assist you in filing your application. Otherwise, call VA at 1-800-827-1000. Note that this does NOT apply to Education Benefits which you can use while you are on active duty.