

HISPANIC CULTURAL EVENTS

---

October 19, 2009 7 p.m.

Performance. Brownout. Don't miss the dynamic 9 piece Latin Funk/Jazz powerhouse Brownout when they make their Cleveland debut. The band of "party rocking legends" was resurrected from the same tequila soaked border town explosion that originated the highly acclaimed Latin powerhouse Grupo Fantasma. Fresh off the worldwide release of their debut album on the UK's prestigious Freestyle Records, the band has made waves internationally amongst DJ's, tastemakers and good music fans alike. Location: Nighttown, 12387 Cedar Road, Cleveland Hts. For info (216) 795-0550 or www.nighttowncleveland.com Fee $10.

October 20, 2009 7 p.m.

Performance. David Sanchez. Multiple-Grammy award winner is being one of "the most profound" tenor saxophonist working today. World-critic Howard Reich saluted the bandleader saying: "Sánchez has from critics, music lovers and fellow artists throughout the world as he to push the frontiers of mainstream jazz to incorporate a compelling and Latin and Afro-Caribbean influences, while remaining true to the tenets genre". Location: Nighttown, 12387 Cedar Road, Cleveland Hts. For 795-0550 or www.nighttowncleveland.com Fee $25.

hailed as renown jazz engendered continues rich array of of the jazz info (216)

October 23, 2009 8 p.m.

Performance. Emily Pinkerton. Pittsburgh singer-songwriter and multi-instrumentalist Emily Pinkerton brings her unique brand of Andean Alt-Country. Her original songs are an evocative mixture of Appalachian banjo and haunting South American guitar, exploring the spaces where North and South American music intersect. Emily's musical education carried her to Valparaiso, Chile, inspiring a decade of immersion in Latin American music. Emily has performed across North and South America. Location: Phoenix Café in Lakewood, 15108 Detroit Ave., Lakewood. For info 216-226-4401 or www.phoenixcoffee.com $5 suggested donation.

HISPANIC CULTURAL EVENTS

---

October 24, 2009

8:30 p.m.

Performance. Tiempo Libre. The Cleveland Institute of Music brings one of today's hottest Cuban Salsa bands, two-time Grammy nominated Tiempo Libre, to the stage of Severance Hall to perform with the CIM Orchestra, led by Carl Topilow. Experience the hypnotic, rhythmic intricacy of Rumba Sinfonica, a new work created for Tiempo Libre by noted Venezuelan composer Ricardo Lorenz. His fiery orchestration, with the virtuosic, jazzed-up arrangements of Tiempo Libre's pianist and music director Jorge Gomez, results in a fusion of urban rhythms with the polished sounds of the orchestra. In the second half of the concert, Tiempo Libre's dynamic, passionate timba music celebrates the group's Cuban roots and newfound American experience. Across the country these conservatory-trained, Miami-based musicians are bringing symphony audiences out of their seats and onto the dance floor. A benefit for the Cleveland Institute of Music presented by the CIM Women's Committee with support from Presenting Sponsor Invacare and sponsors Buckley King and RSM McGladrey. Location: Severance Hall, 11001 Euclid Ave., Cleve. For info 216-231-111 or www.clevelandorchestra.com $25, $35

October 29, 2009

5-7:30 p.m.

Forum. Making History in Government and the Public Sector. Join us to recognize Hispanic women in Ohio who hold political or public sector positions and learn about their journeys including the successes and challenges they have encountered along the way. Forum

Speakers: Blanche Avilés-Casey, Commissioner, Ohio Commission on Latino Affairs; Omayra Feliciano, Interim Director, Department of Consumer Affairs, City of Cleveland; and Anita

López, Lucas County Auditor. Moderator: Andradia Scovil, Program Coordinator, Civic Innovation Lab. Free Valet Parking, Food & Refreshments will be provided. Register early as seating is limited. Location: University Hospitals, Bolwell Health Center, Bolwell Room A, 11100 Euclid Ave., Cleve. For info 216-291-4500. Fee $10

November 8, 2009

7 p.m.

Performance. Bobby Sanabria. Drummer, percussionist, composer, arranger, recording artist, producer, educator, and multiple Grammy nominee leads his All-Star New York City Quartet. Location: Nighttown, 12387 Cedar Road, Cleveland Hts. For info 216-795-0550 or www.nighttown@cleveland.com Fee $20

HISPANIC CULTURAL EVENTS

---

January 2, 2010

Dance. The Western Reserve Argentine Tango Society hosts its Annual New Year's Day celebration. This is a great opportunity for introducing friends to Tango, while sharing with them your favorite dishes. B.Y.O.B. Location: All About Dancing Studio, 2115 Freeman Ave., Cleve. (near the West Side Market). For info: 440-884-8430 or email somarkcir@hotmail.com Fee: $10 at the door.

