

Youth Opportunities Unlimited (Y.O.U.)

Craig Dorn

President and CEO

Craig Dorn joined Y.O.U. in 1989, working in many different positions including Job - Placement Program Coordinator, Program Manager, Project Director, Vice President of Programs, and Senior Vice President. He has led operations, programs and strategic planning throughout his Y.O.U. career. Effective April 1, 2018 Craig became the President and CEO.

At Y.O.U. he has led efforts to create a culture that gathers data and uses it to drive decision making. These efforts led to Y.O.U. being recognized by the Edna McConnell Clark Foundation as one of only 13 organizations nation-wide selected for their PropelNext project. Craig has also built dozens of partnerships and collaborations with schools, community-based organizations, municipalities, faith-based institutions to help Y.O.U. realize our vision of a greater community works together to ensure every young person is ready to pursue a path to economic self-sufficient.

He has served on several committees and Boards including as a member of the United Way Vision Council on Strong Families/Successful Children, Cuyahoga County Workforce Investment Act Youth Council, and Adoption Network Cleveland including a term as Vice Chair. Presently he serves on Board of Directors for the Literacy Cooperative, as Chair of the Broadway P16/MyCom Programs and Services Work Group, BGSU Honors College Advisory Council and as a member of the Voices for Ohio's Children Public Policy Advisory Committee. Craig is a graduate of the Leadership Cleveland Civic Leadership Institute.

Craig has a B.S. from Bowling Green State University and an M.S. in education from Syracuse University.