This review is at the discretion of the program coordinator for the Certificate, Prof. Angela Ugran, East Campus, email: Angela.Ugran@tri-c.edu, Phone: 216-987-2308

Short-term Certificate in Conflict Resolution and Peace Studies Program Objectives

1. Analyze and assess conflict in all of its stages and manifestations in order to intervene effectively and ethically to successfully reduce, manage, or resolve conflict.
2. Listen and utilize nonverbal, emotional and cultural/personal perspectives to validate each party’s issue/interest, to facilitate de-escalation and engagement to move towards resolution while maintaining a neutral process.
3. Facilitate community building by engaging stakeholder representative through collaboration and teamwork while maintaining a safe and objective environment.
4. Apply problem-solving techniques and knowledge of social/emotional intelligence to analyze and evaluate the roots of conflict, (including structural, cultural, emotional and economical differences), and their effects on individuals to create and sustain a peaceful community.

2) Petition for Certificate!

Once ALL core courses and electives have been approved and registered on students DARS report, students need to submit a “Petition for Certificate” which is a form you can get in the Enrollment Center at any campus. This form must be completed at least 30 days before graduation or when the student wants the certificate. Certificate credits can also be applied towards completing an Associate’s degree. Students can apply for the certificate before completing the Associate’s degree.
