

AQIP SYSTEMS PORTFOLIO 2017

Table 1.c: Co-Curricular Activities That Support Program Learning Outcomes

Club/Affiliated Program	Description/Types of Events
American Sign Language Club/ AAS in Deaf Interpretive Services	Provides social interactions between hearing and deaf people while assisting members in improving their signing skills and broadening their education through workshops and events.
Captioning and Court Reporting Club/AAS in Captioning and Court Reporting	Activities such as fundraising and networking foster student success, provide a sense of support and community, and promote interest in the captioning and court reporting field.
Educators of Today and Tomorrow/AAS in Early Childhood Education/AA transfer education	Develops professionalism, fellowship, and activities that support various approaches toward teaching and learning.
Electroneurodiagnostic Technology Club/AAS in Electroneurodiagnostic Technology	Provides educational and social opportunities that further the field of electroneurodiagnostic technology. Members learn about the many different areas of the END field including electroencephalography (EEG), intraoperative monitoring (IOM), sleep studies, evoked potentials, and nerve conduction studies.
Nuclear Medicine Club/AAS in Nuclear Medicine	Promotes academic success, social well-being, and teamwork as participants increase community awareness of nuclear medicine.