

Tondi Allen

Information Technology (IT) Client Manager, IT Center of Excellence

Tondi is a IT Client Manager for IT Center of Excellence. She is charged with creating and managing innovative programs for the Workforce IT division. Tondi brings industry experience including expertise in Health IT, Blockchain, Digital Marketing, and IT strategic planning. She holds numerous IT Certifications including IBM Blockchain Foundations Developer, Google IT Support Professional, National Health Association (NHA) - Certified Electronic Health Records Specialist, American Health Information Management Association (AHIMA) - Certified Health Information Technology Trainer (HIT PRO). Tondi Allen also holds a wealth of knowledge in emerging areas of technology such as AR/VR technologies, Artificial intelligence Use Cases, Cloud Computing, Automation and Robotics in the workplace. Tondi is also a profound advocate and champion for Diversity and Inclusion. She received a Bachelor of Science degree from Concordia College and is pursuing an MBA from Western Governors University.

Speech Topics:

Introduction to Block Chain Technology

Artificial Intelligence Overview and the future of work Past, Present, and Future of Automation and Robotics

Introduction to Augmented and Virtual Reality

Diversity and Inclusion in the Workplace

Diversity and Inclusion in the IT Workplace