

Jason L. Carter

Deputy General Counsel, Legal Services

Jason has been a practicing attorney for 10+ years. Assistant County Prosecutor in the Cuyahoga County Prosecutor's Office, where he represented the County in criminal litigation, client and case preparation, pretrial, mediation and trials. Jason also served as the Assistant Law Director and Prosecutor for the City of Euclid. In this role, he served as Counsel for the City of Euclid Planning and Zoning Commission and the Civil Service Commission; negotiated cell tower leases, land contracts and labor contracts on behalf of the City; advised the City of Euclid Police Department and administrative departments. Jason served in private practice as General Counsel to various small to medium businesses in areas of formation, litigation, contracts and employment disputes; represented administrative and tenured professors in employment negotiations; litigated in the areas of criminal defense, civil, commercial and contract disputes; provided representation to clients in municipal, county, trial and appellant cases; mediated and pursued complaints before the EEOC; and negotiated buyouts, settlements and other matters related to civil litigation, personal injury and employment disputes. Jason received an Associate of Arts from Richland Community College in Dallas Texas and is a graduate of the University of Texas at Dallas, where he received a Bachelor of Science in Public Administration and a Minor in Psychology. He obtained his law degree from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law.

Speech Topics:

Communication

Team Building

Business Law

Expungements and Criminal Law

Courts and the Judicial System

Entrepreneurial and Start-Up Information

Motivation and Self-Help