

Richard C. Larkin, Jr., BS

Coordinator, College Credit Plus

Enrollment Center, Eastern Campus

Richard C. Larkin, Jr., serves as Coordinator of College Credit Plus at Tri-C's Eastern Campus. Prior to that, Richard served as Enrollment Center Representative at the Eastern Campus. Richard enrolled at Tri-C in the Spring Semester of 2012 and graduated in the Spring of 2014 with an Associate of Arts degree. After Tri-C, Richard enrolled at Cleveland State University in the Fall of 2014 and graduated with a bachelor's degree in Middle School Education, with concentrations in Math and Social Studies. Richard worked as a Math Tutor before, during, and after he graduated from Tri-C and Cleveland State University. After graduating from Cleveland State University, Richard worked as a substitute teacher and educational specialist, and he has worked at Amazon and Cleveland Clinic as well.

Categories:

Health and Wellness:

Richard provides his personal account of continuous improvement and personal transformation related: to changes in diet; the impact of making positive daily choices; and his personal journey related to healing from pain; the importance of self-worth; and establishing and maintaining a healthier outlook and approach to life which may be of help to others on their journey.

Science and Math:

Richard shares his passion and experience in uniquely explaining and teaching mathematics to students.

Cuyahoga Community College:

Richard presents his personal experience related to the benefits of Cuyahoga Community College and offers keen insights into effectively utilizing the College's resources as college students and community members.