

Stephanie Metzger

Manager, Social Media

Stephanie Metzger joined Cuyahoga Community College (Tri-C) as the College's Social Media Manager in February 2020. She oversees the content on the College's official social media accounts under the Integrated Communications Department.

Prior to joining Tri-C, Stephanie was an Emmy Award-winning Digital and Social Producer for WKYC-TV, Cleveland's NBC affiliate. She's covered some of Cleveland's biggest moments in recent years, including the 2016 NBA Finals, 2016 World Series and 2018 Baseball Hall of Fame induction ceremony. She was also a sports reporter for The Morning Journal in Lorain and a news reporter for The News-Herald in Willoughby.

Stephanie holds a B.A. in Journalism & Promotional Communication from Cleveland State University. She grew up in Mansfield, Ohio and presently lives in University Heights with her husband and their Corgi named Gatsby.

Speech Topic:

Cyberbullying & Social Media: Data suggests that more than 4 billion of the global population use social media. As social media use and reach increase, so does bullying on all platforms. Learn how to identify and prevent cyberbullying, especially among youth.