

Dr. Lindsay English Associate Vice President, Academic Professional Development and Assessment

Dr. English serves as the Associate Vice President of Academic Professional Development and Assessment for Cuyahoga Community College (Tri-C). In this role, she provides broad and strategic leadership to several areas of the College including faculty and academic administrative professional development and the assessment of student learning outcomes. She is also responsible for maintaining the College's accreditation through the Higher Learning Commission. Prior to this role, Dr. English served as the Dean of Academic Affairs on the Metropolitan Campus where she provided leadership to the Business, Math, Business Technologies, Health Careers, Sciences, Liberal Arts and the Library/Learning Commons divisions. She was also responsible for the successful deployment of strategic planning initiatives, curriculum, programs, course schedules and campus budgets. Dr. English began her career at Tri-C in 2002. From 1987-2002, Dr. English was a faculty member and Dean at Ursuline College where she initiated programs such as the Ursuline College Accelerated Program (UCAP) and Saturday School.

Dr. English completed her PhD in Higher Education at the University of Toledo. She also holds a MBA from Kent State University and a BS in Family Relations from the Ohio State University. She also holds a post-masters certificate in College Teaching and is a certified Corporate Coach.

In her spare time, Lindsay serves on the Board of Trustees of the Westlake Porter Public Library and as a Member-at-Large to the Executive Board of the American Council of Education's Ohio Women's Network. She and her husband Phil have 3 grown children and 2 grandchildren.

Speech Topics:

- Women in Leadership: Based upon audience request, this speech can cover the following topics; individually or collectively:
 - Undervalued Leadership Traits of Women
 - Woman to Woman Mentoring / Coaching
 - Self-Limiting Behaviors Women Should Avoid
- Business Communication: Based upon audience request, this speech can cover the following topics; individually or collectively:
 - Business Letter Writing
 - Making the most of your E-mail Communications
 - Professional Networking Strategies