

Ann Hartle Proudfit, M.A.

Dean, Student Affairs, Westshore Campus

Ann Hartle Proudfit joined Cuyahoga Community College (Tri-C®) in 1997, as a research analyst in the institutional planning and evaluation department and gained experience analyzing institutional data and developing reports based on College demographics. In 1999, Proudfit joined the resource development office where she has utilized her proposal writing skills and experience in database management and analysis to help launch the College's first-ever major gifts campaign Invest in People, Build Tomorrow's Workforce. In 2008, Proudfit moved into a role in college operations, becoming the first Campus Director, Academic and Student Affairs, at the Corporate College West facility in Westlake, Ohio. In this role, she was responsible for providing academic and student affairs services to more than 1,500 students while working to launch the Westshore Campus which opened in January 2011. Her interests include student and team development, strategic planning and relationship building.

Proudfit earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in English, Sociology and Education from Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, Pennsylvania (1990); and Master of Arts in sociology from The Ohio State University (1992), with emphasis in research and quantitative analysis. She is currently working on a Ph.D. in higher education administration with the University of Toledo.

Speech Topics:

- Fundraising through relationship building
- Building a positive culture in the workplace
- Managing challenging behavior in the classroom and workplace