

Cuyahoga Community College has a levy on the ballot – November 7, 2023

Just the Facts

- FACT: Founded in 1963 as Ohio's first and largest community college, Tri-C has provided high-quality, affordable education and programs to more than 1 million community members.
- FACT: Tri-C is requesting a 2.1 mill renewal levy with a 0.4 mill increase that will cost an additional $1.17 per month on a $100,000 property.
- FACT: For every $1 of support for Tri-C from Cuyahoga County, Tri-C provides a return of $11.80 in economic benefit to the community.
- FACT: The College will use levy proceeds to keep tuition affordable, provide up-to-date education and training, enable students to earn two years of college credit, and support technical education and workforce training.
- FACT: 85% of Tri-C graduates live and work in Northeast Ohio and contribute to the economic growth of the region.
- FACT: 90% of Tri-C graduates from career programs find employment and 83% of those jobs are related to their field of study.
- FACT: Without the levy, Tri-C would have to make drastic reductions in technical education, two-year transfer programs, workforce training, and affordable access to higher education.
- FACT: Tri-C is the region's leading provider of education for our area's technical workforce, health care professionals, and students preparing to enter four-year degree programs.
- FACT: More than 1 million community members have come through Tri-C's doors to improve their lives.
- FACT: Early voting begins on October 11. Election Day is on November 7.

On June 29, the Cuyahoga Community College Board of Trustees voted to place a 2.1 mill renewal levy with a 0.4 mill increase on the November 7 ballot to sustain Tri-C's vital educational and economic impact in Northeast Ohio.
