

Excellence in Teaching Award in Honor of Ralph M. Besse Adjunct Faculty and Lecturer Recipients

Congratulations to the outstanding faculty recognized with the Excellence in Teaching Award in Honor of Ralph M. Besse! This award is presented annually to up to four full-time faculty members and up to four adjunct faculty or lecturers selected for exceptional professional competence and commitment to helping students succeed. Specifically, these award winners demonstrate a commitment to academic quality, stimulation of intellectual development, and investment with students within and beyond the classroom. The award is given in honor of Ralph M. Besse, who was a Cleveland community leader, champion of higher education and instrumental in founding Tri-C.
