

VIRTUAL COLLEGE COMEBACK WEEK

Oct. 16-19

We're here for you! Come back to Tri-C and get a step closer to your academic and career goals.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 17

Presentation	Recording Link
Title: Come Back to Tri-C – The Time Is Now! Description: College Now Greater Cleveland’s Adult Programs and Services offers FREE assistance to adults pursuing education for their careers and personal growth. The organization looks to break down the barriers preventing people from acquiring, completing or continuing their education. Presenter: David Burke, Manager of Adult Programs and Services College Now Greater Cleveland	Listen now
Title: College Comeback Debt Forgiveness Programs Overview Description: Tri-C offers several ways for students with debt owed to the College to return and complete their certificate or degree. Join us to learn more about debt forgiveness programs. Presenter: Eunice Cabrera, Project Manager — Retention Enrollment Management Cuyahoga Community College	Listen now
Title: What Workforce Can Do for YOU! Description: Learn more about Tri-C’s workforce options — a variety of programs designed to get you quickly trained, working and making money. Presenters: Sarah Baldwin, Recruitment Specialist, and Cici Kaltz, Director, Outreach, Retention and Engagement AL&S & Workforce Partnerships Cuyahoga Community College	Listen now
Title: Navigating the SAP Appeal Process at Tri-C Description: Learn more about completing the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) appeal process. Presenters: Elijah Scott, Toni Johnson, Irvin Gaston, Isaiah Hagwood and E’Shea Strong Educational Opportunity Center Cuyahoga Community College	Listen now