The United States Department of Education requires all institutions of higher education to be certified in any state in which they have students. Cuyahoga Community College has been accepted by The Ohio Department of Higher Education into SARA (State Authorization Reciprocity Agreement). This provides Cuyahoga Community College authorization to accept students from SARA member states. Additional approvals may be required for activities such as clinical work. Programs requiring licensure are not currently covered by the SARA process. Tri-C is not authorized to offer online programs in California*, Massachusetts, Northern Mariana Islands, and Puerto Rico. Please visit www.nc-sara.org for current SARA member states.

*California can be taught to if a similar program is not offered "on ground" within 50 miles of the student's residence.
