ATTEND

These are the final steps to becoming a Tri-C student!

<input type="checkbox"/> Placement Test	If you do not have eligible ACT or SAT scores or their equivalent, you must take Tri-C's placement test if you are seeking an associate degree. Tri-C students who live outside of Northeast Ohio may complete their math and English placement tests at an approved remote testing location in their local area. Visit www.tri-c.edu/remote for more information.
<input type="checkbox"/> Register and Pay	Register for classes on the Registration tab in my Tri-C space. You must be prepared to pay or have financial aid requirements completed. Registration is not complete until you have paid or made arrangements to pay for your tuition and fees. www.tri-c.edu/payingforcollege
<input type="checkbox"/> Equipment and Books	If using financial aid, required equipment and/or books can be purchased on the Tri-C bookstore website before the start of class. Specific packages are in place for steno and voice track students which can be obtained using financial aid funds. If no financial aid, students can secure equipment from recommended sources. Contact Kelly Moranz before making any purchases. www.tri-c.edu/bookstore
