Course Description

Provides a stylistic and historical overview of the visual arts in Western culture from inception to the fifteenth century including: Prehistoric, Egyptian, Ancient Near Eastern, Greek, Etruscan, Roman, Byzantine, Early Medieval Monastic, Carolingian and Ottonian, Romanesque, Gothic, 14th-Century Art in Italy, 14th-Century Art in Northern Europe and Spain, and the Early Renaissance in Italy.

Want to Explore Art in Virtual Reality?

Our on-campus ART 2020 course incorporates Meta 3 VR headsets allowing Tri-C students the unparalleled opportunity to explore the history of human culture through an interactive lens. Creating a dynamic and multi-sensory learning environment, the use of VR equipment will allow you to formally analyze, interpret, and personally connect with historical landmarks and site-specific artworks around the world.

Why Take this Course?

By studying art history, you will be introduced to a wide range of cultural practices, traditions, and beliefs from across the Europe and beyond. This course will help you develop close looking and critical thinking skills while also focusing on different worldviews, histories, and values, enriching your global perspective and fostering greater empathy and respect for diverse cultures, past and present.

Art history also involves the study of unique techniques, mediums, and aesthetic approaches used in many ancient and Medieval artistic traditions. From the exquisite details in ancient Sumerian art to the complexity of Gothic stained-glass, these artistic practices can inspire new creative ideas and ways of thinking no matter your area of study.
