

Pavlo Yendrys

I am from Ukraine. I was born, and raised, and my parents live there. On holiday people wear national clothes embroidered shirts and embroidered dresses. On weekdays people wear comfortable clothes that they like. People in Ukraine have always thought about peace, but now it is special. There are many traditions and customs in Ukraine. Ukraine has good nature and good people. For me Ukraine is the smell of honey and flowers, the singing of people and birds.