

Rutebuka Ndayambaje

I was born in Congo. After one year we moved to Rwanda and we finished 12 years and then we moved to USA in the December 2018. My parents told me Our Original country .is Congo it was the best country because It have good soil and big farming. Cultivation. My Religion is Adventist. My dream is to drive a big truck, but right now I am Studying English as second of language It will help me to communicate with others.