My Story

My story is about my country and why I left my country. I am from Afghanistan and I was living in Kabul Afghanistan. I had good times and bad times in my country. My good time in the country was my father life but after my father died my bad time and problems start one my problems was my family don't have enough money to me and sister going to school. The big problem we had our country were war and it is not safe for us and one is big resent this is our people left our country. united states have launch number of Afghan immigrate to live here. Other problem I had problem with my uncle about my property. There were problems and we decided to going to Pakistan. After 6 month we decided apply to cases to United States and our case took 2 years to got approve. The time arrived to United States I had a lot of problems in here. A Big problem was language and everything was new for me. Thanks god I am graduated from high school and right now I am studying at Cuyahoga Community college. I have been in the United States 5 years. This all about my story is about my country and why I left my country.
