

Celia Nieves

I'm from Barranquitas, Puerto Rico. My country, my people and culture. The people in my city are gentle. The kids wear uniforms for play basketball in the park. The people said Puerto Rico is beautiful. The people have important culture and tradition. The people are working for keep the family. We hear music typical, puertorriqueña, bomb and plena. It is a tropical island with beautiful landscapes. Puerto Rico smells like flowers, mountains and beaches. I remember how beautiful it was in my land Puerto Rico. I would like to visit the people and tropical weather in the future.