

STUDENT LEADERSHIP CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

WHY GET CERTIFIED?

- You will gain the skills that will help you reach your leadership potential.
- You will network with leaders, future leaders and employers.
- You will gain leadership experience through community service.
- You will earn academic credit by taking the leadership course.
- It will look great on your resume!

Select a certification level (General, Advanced or Distinguished), complete the respective requirements. Once all requirements have been completed, submit the Completion Document Form to the Metro Student Life, MRC 23.

GENERAL CERTIFICATION

- Complete the Core Leadership Workshops by attending a LEADERSHIP BOOT CAMP offered at Metropolitan, Western or Westshore campuses facilitated by a Corporate College instructor.
- Volunteer at a minimum of two on-campus or off-campus activities. Volunteer time must add up to four hours and be completed within the current academic year.
- Have a 2.0 cumulative grade point average and be in good standing with the College.
- Submit a completed application with support documentation to your campus Student Life Office.

Students will receive a certificate of completion.

The leadership workshops can be completed either in-person or online at each campus. For the more information on the Student Leadership Certificate Program and workshops visit <http://www.tri-c.edu/student-life/student-leadership/index.html>.

Leadership Boot Camp seating is limited and so don't delay, register today at your campus Student Life Office. Leadership Boot Camps are free to students and include all course materials including Emotional Intelligence 2.0 book.
