Textbook Affordability Committee
Thursday, May 1, 2025
2:30 p.m. via Teams
Meeting Minutes

Attendance: Chris Moir, Dr. Kitchen, John Rasel, Katie Kolthoff, Shaunna Chapman, Brad Lipinski, Jackie Dynda

Textbook Affordability Student Comparison:
- We went over the survey questions and results from each semester, back to Spring of 2024.
    - Google is the top resource students use

Follett Discovery:
- We are at 93% for Fall adoptions
    - Usually at 30% at this time of the year. Big improvement.
    - OER - inputted as 'No Materials Required'
    - Follett Adoption is working well
    - Chris and Shaunna will put together a 1-page document about OERs

AI Workshop Update:
- Brad and Jackie are presenting at the Faculty Symposium
    - Presentation is about using AI
    - Looking to see if the faculty wants to create an informal group about AI
- Looking to create AI workshops in the fall
    - Possibly a few different topics

Schedule Builds:
- Chris met with the schedule build committee
- They have the schedules made out until Fall 2027

Roundtable:
Jackie: OER vs No Material
Chris will put clarification in the Provost newsletter

Brad: Not all OERs are available on Follett
Shaunna: OERS is very fluid. There is a way to do it.

We will meet next in Fall 2025.
