*Students with a score of 4 on the WritePlacer are conditionally eligible for College Credit Plus, with a cumulative 3.0 high-school GPA or a letter of recommendation provided by a high school counselor, principal or career technical advisor.

Developmental education coursework is not covered by College Credit Plus. Students opting to take developmental coursework will be considered an early-admit student and will have to self-pay tuition, fees and books.

Once Tri-C has your College Credit Plus application, high school or middle school transcripts and test scores, a decision letter will be sent to your address on file via U.S. mail.

If you are accepted, you will follow the steps below:

1. Meet with your high-school counselor to complete the electronic authorization-to-attend form. (Look for email verification that your authorization-to-attend form has been processed.)
2. Schedule an appointment to meet with a Tri-C academic counselor at 216-987-6000, Option 4.
3. Register online for approved classes. (Registration link will be sent via email after counseling appointment.)
