

VIRTUAL STUDENT SUCCESS WEEK

WATCH ON DEMAND

- Why Is TRI-C Texting Me?
 - Meet the Tri-C Success Team behind the texts, and learn more about the various virtual resources available to you this summer (and beyond!).
- From Resolutions to Results Goal Setting that Actually Works!
 - Working with Tri-C to set goals to achieve results during the semester.
 - NOTE: There was an error in the recording in the beginning, so this is approximately 15-minutes in.
- Suicide Gatekeeper Training
 - Suicide Gatekeeper Training is a session will help you gain tools to: build awareness of risk factors, warning signs, and symptoms; learn how to approach folks of concern; and have a list of helpful resources and hotlines, text lines, and online chatlines. We thank you for taking a stand to help prevent suicide and hope you spread the word to others!
- Team Up with Tutoring!
 - Don't just survive but thrive this summer by connecting with your campus tutors! Meet members of your academic support team who are ready and willing to help you succeed. During this interactive presentation, learn how to link up with tutors who can help in a variety of subjects, from math, English, science, ESL, and more. Together, we can make it a summer of success, not stress.
- Get Involved! Student Clubs and Virtual Activities
 - Meet the Director of Student Life, Chava Witt, to learn about how to get involved virtually this summer!
- Learn the Skills Your Boss Wants You to Know
 - Cuyahoga Community College's Western Campus Social Sciences gives you the tips, tricks, and resources to learn the skills your boss wants you to know - and the certificates and training available to you!
- Meet the Department Health Careers
 - Make an informed decision about choosing a career in Health Careers.
- Learning How to Navigate Under COVID-Understanding Stress, Anxiety & Adapt to a Changing Environment
