

Want to Transfer to an HBCU?

Meet with the Transfer Center soon after enrolling at Tri-C.

What is an HBCU?

Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) are institutions created to educate African Americans at a time when many schools did not welcome them. However, HBCUs still educate students of all backgrounds.

Why Choose an HBCU?*

- Excellent education
- Affordability
- Supportive atmosphere and community
- Large alumni network and support

*from UNCF (<https://unconf.org/pages/why-choose-an-hbcu>)

Contact

	Transfer Center
Eastern	tceast@tri-c.edu 216-987-4115
Metropolitan	tcmetro@tri-c.edu 216-987-3841
Western and Brunswick University Center	tcwest@tri-c.edu 216-987-5085
Westshore	tcwestshore@tri-c.edu 216-987-3130

Black American Council	blackamericancouncil@tri-c.edu 216-987-4527
Multicultural Centers	www.tri-c.edu/multicultural

Famous HBCU Alumni:

- Toni Morrison, Howard University
- Samuel L. Jackson, Morehouse College
- Katherine Johnson, West Virginia State University
- Jesse Jackson, North Carolina A&T State University

Additional Resources to Help You Transfer to an HBCU

- The United Negro College Fund (UNCF) provides scholarships and other support for students who attend HBCUs. Visit their website at www.uncf.org/cleveland
- Use the Common Black College Application to apply to multiple HBCUs at the same time. This is not tied directly to a specific college and is similar to the Common Application. <https://commonblackcollegeapp.com>
- Say Yes Scholars can connect with HBCUs that are part of Say Yes to Education.

www.tri-c.edu/transfer

www.tri-c.edu/bac