

Reverend Hilton O. Smith
Retired Senior Vice President
Turner Construction

Hilton O. Smith is a retired Senior Vice President for National Community Affairs for Turner Construction Company. In this role, Smith was responsible for managing the company's corporate and national community affairs, minority and woman owned business enterprise program, equal employment and educational programs. He coordinated business development and strategic marketing programs with senior executive officers within the company. Smith actively led Turner's efforts in awarding over $22 billion dollars to thousands of minority and woman owned business enterprises.

Mr. Smith is the former president of the Cleveland Branch NAACP; past Board chair of Saint Augustine's University, Cuyahoga Community College Board of Trustees and Cleveland Metropolitan School District. Smith currently serves on the boards of United Way, University Hospital and The NAACP National Foundation. He is an ordained minister at the Greater Abyssinia Baptist church and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology & Political Science from St. Augustine's University.