Train the Trainer: Become an STNA Instructor

This 28-hour course is designed to prepare Nurses to coordinate and/or teach ODH state approved Nurse Aide Training Competency Evaluation Program (NATCEP).

REQUIREMENTS:

PC - Program Coordinator: Copy of resume and employment verification letter that confirms 3200 hours of RN experience including 1600 hours in Long Term Care service.

PI - Primary Instructor: *Copy of resume and employment verification letter that confirms 3200 hours of RN experience caring for the elderly or chronically ill.
LPN must have 3200 hours as a Nurse in Long Term Care Facility.

All sessions must be successfully completed

- Basic TCEP requirements
- Program development
- Course material design
- Organizing and individualizing a TCEP
- Instructional techniques
- Ohio Administrative Code Rules
- Describe benefits of TTT program
- Identify qualifications of the PC, PI and guest lecturers
- Demonstrate understanding of the typical nurse aide's level of training ability and major job duties
- Identify effects of stress on learning, testing and techniques that can be used to manage stress
- Apply training strategies and techniques to work with diverse students
- Describe the differences between non-facility and facility based TCEP
- Identify ways to prepare trainees for the competency evaluation through objective and skills tests
- Describe how to assess the training environment and utilize techniques to enhance the training experience
- Organize, develop and individualize a TCEP topic area
- Describe TCEP standards
- Instruct how to design a TCE Program
- Define the components of clinical teaching
- Describe ways to maintain and organize TCEP, content and resources
- Describe the use, considerations, advantages and limitations of various teaching styles
- Define and describe the function of skills testing
- Identify who may administer a skills test
- Describe the steps used to decide which skills to test
- Describe general principles of the program evaluation
- Provide examples of formative and summative evaluation
- Identify types of evaluation instruments
- Describe basic structure and basic training approach in presenting classroom subject matter
- Analyze and recount state law and federal regulations

Fee: $750

*Experience through employment in a LTCF, geriatrics department, home health agency, hospital chronic care, or other long-term care setting is acceptable. Experience evaluating in a long-term care setting meet requirements. Clinical skills providing care and experience in caring for the elderly or chronically ill is acceptable. *

Please submit required documents and any additional inquiries to Maryann Schrembeck at Maryann.Schrembeck@tri-c.edu or call 216-987-0258.

Following approval, register by sending an email to WorkforceWestshore@tri-c.edu

updated 10/21/20